

Part 1:

1. Michael was an insidious man, but today he decided to be compassionate.
2. Michael is a martial artist, and he is a painter.
3. The crowds remonstrated when they heard the chocolate ice cream was being removed, for chocolate was widely considered the best ice cream flavor.
4. Many revere Michael's ability to sing, so he started to teach classes on how to sing.
5. The ice cream subjugation had begun, yet nobody realized that their right to ice cream was being impeached.

Part 2:

1. In order to get them to acquiesce with him, Michael spoke for many hours about why chocolate ice cream is so great.
2. To evince the excitement of the crowd, Michael changed the subject of his speech to cookies and cream ice cream.
3. Michael climbed a mountain to speak to individuals below about his love for chocolate ice cream, in order to impel them to follow suit.
4. To show his magnanimity, Michael gave free ice cream to all the people present.
5. In order to please the crowd, Michael made it a point to allow for the usurpation of the throne.

Part 3:

1. How would the following sentence be different if Edwards used "disobedience" instead of "wickedness"?

If Edwards used "disobedience" instead of "wickedness", the sentence would lose some of its impactfulness. This is because the tone created with diction such as "wickedness" is more negative and impactful than "disobedience", regardless of whether or not they have similar connotations.

2. Edwards uses personification in this following instance: "There is hell's wide gaping mouth open; and you have nothing to stand upon, nor any thing to take hold of, there is nothing between you and hell but the air; it is only the power and mere pleasure of God that holds you up." Identify the personification. Explain the function (effect) this image has on the audience. How can this help Edwards achieve his purpose?

The use of personification such as, “There is hell's wide gaping mouth open” helps achieve Edwards’ purpose by showing the fragileness of what his audience was relying upon. It serves the purpose of showing to his audience that God is the only saviour from hell.